The impact was profound—boosting self-esteem, social skills, and a sense of belonging. Parent feedback highlighted the programme's life-changing value, offering inclusion and opportunity where it's often lacking.

Mae Bayside bellach yn darparu 35 bwletin newyddion lleol byw yr wythnos ac yn cefnogi partneriaid fel fel Hosbis Dewi Sant a Conwy Mind.

Voluntary Sector Key Fund

The UK Government's Shared Prosperity Fund (Voluntary Sector Key Fund), helped strengthen a vital community-led station in Colwyn Bay - Bay Radio.
The grant enabled investment in equipment, broadcasting capacity, and a part-time producer to support automation and expand social action content.

Matthew Flanagan- Marie Curie

Dechreuodd Matthew wirfoddoli gyda Marie Curie fel dirprwy drysorydd, gan gefnogi bancio, casgliadau tuniau a blychau, a chydlynu digwyddiadau. Cafodd ei gyflwyno i'r cyfle gan CVSC, a dechreuodd fel gwirfoddolwr swyddfa gan gymryd mwy o gyfrifoldeb dros amser.

"Po hiraf rydw i wedi bod yn rhan o'r gwaith, y mwyaf o hyder rydw i wedi ennill ac rydw i wedi teimlo'n rhan o rywbeth ystyrlon," meddai.

Wedi'i annog gan ffrind ac wedi'i arwain gan Kasia yn CVSC, daeth Matthew o hyd i wirfoddoli fel ffordd wych o gwrdd â phobl, sefydlu trefn, a rhoi'n ôl i'r gymuned. Ysbrydolodd ei brofiad ef i wneud cais am rolau gyda sefydliadau eraill—un yn cynnig datblygiad gyrfa, ac un arall a ddarganfuwyd mewn ffair wirfoddoli. Mae ei daith yn dangos sut y gall gwirfoddoli feithrin twf personol ac effaith gymunedol.

Matthew Flanagan - Marie Curie

Matthew began volunteering with Marie Curie as deputy treasurer, supporting banking, tin and box collections, and event coordination. Introduced to the opportunity by CVSC, he started as an office volunteer and gradually took on more responsibility.

"The longer I've been involved, the more I've grown in confidence and felt part of something meaningful," he said.

Encouraged by a friend and guided by Kasia at CVSC, Matthew found volunteering to be a great way to meet people, build routine, and give back to the community. His experience inspired him to apply for roles with other organisations—one offering career development, and another discovered at a volunteering fair. His journey highlights how volunteering can foster personal growth and community impact.

Llywodraethu

Mae cymorth ac arweiniad i grwpiau a sefydliadau cymunedol i gyflawni arfer da wedi parhau'n flaenoriaeth allweddol i Dîm CCGC.
Mae hyn wedi bod yn hollbwysig wrth i'r sector lywio tirwedd gymhleth sydd wedi'i nodi gan bwysau ariannol cynyddol, newidiadau rheoleiddio, ac anghenion cymunedol sy'n esblygu. Mewn ymateb i'r heriau hyn, bu pwyslais cynyddol ar ddatblygiad sefydliadol.
Rydym wedi gweithio gyda llawer o grwpiau i geisio cryfhau eu strwythurau llywodraethu, gan gynnwys drwy fabwysiadu cyfansoddiadau mwy cadarn ac ystyried ymgorffori.
Caiff y duedd hon ei llywio gan nifer o ffactorau, gan gynnwys mwy o atebolrwydd, heriau codi arian, llywodraethu effeithiol a chydymffurfiaeth reoleiddiol.

Governance

Support and guidance for community groups and organisations to meet good practice has remained a key priority for the CVSC Team.
This has been crucial as the sector navigates a complex landscape marked by increasing financial pressures, regulatory changes, and evolving community needs. In response to these challenges, there's been a growing emphasis on organisational development.
We have worked with many groups seeking to strengthen their governance structures, including by adopting more robust constitutions and considering incorporation.
This trend is driven by a number of factors, including increased accountability, fundraising challenges, effective governance and regulatory compliance.

Astudiaeth Achos

Roedd CVSC yn falch o gefnogi datblygiad menter gymdeithasol newydd ar y Gogarth, Llandudno. Arweiniwyd yr adfywiad gan Robin Hughes, hyfforddwr golff lleol, a adferodd cwrs ‘pitch and putt’ 9 twll a oedd wedi’i esgeuluso ers 2020.

Roedd gweledigaeth Robin yn glir: sefydlu CIC sy’n cynnig gwersi cynhwysol, gwasanaeth dwyieithog, a gofal am yr ardal SSSI gyfagos. Sefydlwyd CIC gyda llywodraethu cadarn, cefnogaeth gymunedol, a chynllun busnes cryf.

Mae’r tîm yn dod â sgiliau amrywiol – o gyllid i letygarwch – ac yn ymrwymedig i ymgysylltu â grwpiau ymylol a hyrwyddo hanes cyfoethog Llandudno.

Mae CVSC yn parhau i ddarparu cymorth wedi’i deilwra i sicrhau llwyddiant y fenter.

Mae’r prosiect hwn yn dangos sut y gall chwaraeon, treftadaeth a datblygu cymunedol gydweithio i greu ased cynaliadwy a chynhwysol i’r ardal leol.

Case Study

CVSC was proud to support the development of a new social enterprise on the Great Orme, Llandudno. Local golf coach Robin Hughes led the revival of a disused 9-hole pitch and putt course—once a cherished part of the town’s sporting heritage.

Robin’s vision was clear: create a community-focused CIC offering inclusive golf lessons, bilingual services, and environmental stewardship of the adjacent SSSI.

A CIC was formed with strong governance, community buy-in, and a robust business plan at its core.

The team brings a wide range of skills—from finance to hospitality—and is committed to engaging marginalised groups and promoting Llandudno’s rich history.

CVSC continues to provide tailored support, ensuring the CIC thrives.

This project demonstrates how sport, heritage, and community development can come together to create a sustainable, inclusive local asset.
